

Women, Climate Change, and Cities: An Intersectional Perspective

March 5, 2015

4-6 PM

Orozco Room

Room 712

66 West 12th Street

Featuring a presentation of recent research from the Women's Environment and Development Organization (WEDO) Fellows, followed by a panel discussion with:

Eleanor Blomstrom, Program Director and Head of Office, WEDO

Mary Barber, New Jersey Director, Clean Energy, the Environmental Defense Fund

Jalonne White-Newsome, Federal Policy Analyst, WE ACT

Ana Baptista, Assistant Professor of Professional Practice in Environmental Policy and Sustainability Management, Milano, and Jean Gardner, Associate Professor of Social-Ecological History and Design, School of Constructed Environments, Parsons the New School for Design

Free admission; RSVP required at www.eventbrite.com

WE DO

TISHMAN
ENVIRONMENT
AND DESIGN CENTER

THE NEW SCHOOL

MILANO SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, MANAGEMENT, AND URBAN POLICY