

EQUITABLE FINANCING FOR CLIMATE CHANGE

Presenting experiences from the South and launching new case studies

Funding sustainable adaptation and mitigation from a gender perspective

Opening by Monique Essed-Fernandes WEDO

Liane Schalatek
Heinrich Böll Foundation North America

The landscape:
Overview of current financing instruments
and implications for women.

Athena Peralta
Consultant on Women, Poverty and Ecology

Presentation of WEDO's new publication "Gender and Climate Change
Finance: A Case Study from the Philippines."

Mazoe Gondwe *Coalition of Women's Farmers, ActionAid
partner, Malawi*

Impacts of climate change on women
and agriculture in Malawi and the types of adaptation initiatives that should receive funding.

Mariama Williams
Global Gender and Climate Alliance

The way forward: Guidelines and actions to ensure equitable access to climate funds.

Followed by an interactive session with audience

Grebe Room, Pavillion 14 B, COP 14, Poznan, Poland 6 December, 13:00 – 15:00
Further information: cate@wedo.org, ilana.solomon@actionaid.org