

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL
for RESEARCH on WOMEN
BREAKING NEW GROUND

*Private/Civil Society Partnerships and Corporate Social Responsibility:
Women as Agents of Change*

Co-Sponsors: UN Fund for International Partnerships (UNFIP)
and UN Development Fund For Women (UNIFEM)

Date: Thursday, 6 March 2008

Time: 1:30 PM ~ 3:00 PM

Place: Church Center ~ Boss Room, 8th Fl.
777 UN Plaza (44th Street and First Avenue)

Speakers:

June Zeitlin, Executive Director, WEDO
Leslie Meek-Wohl, Senior Program Officer, Citi Foundation
Amy Davidsen, Director, Environmental Affairs, JP Morgan Chase
Shari Cohen, Senior Fellow, Demos
Linda Basch, President, National Council for Research on Women

Join the National Council for Research on Women to discuss the impact of women's leadership on private sector-civil society partnerships, and strategies for building Corporate Social Responsibility. What are the challenges and the potential for creating collaborative bridges, and how can companies make a difference in the lives of women by adopting principled policies and practices?